- E. Competing at the Miss Utah Pageant is at the discretion of the MIC Organization & the Iron County Commissioners.

10. Service/Community Service Initiative:

- A. You can win Miss Utah with this piece of the puzzle. YOU MUST BE DOING SERVICE that supports your CSI. Girls running for Miss Utah post up to 3 times a week about what they are doing in their community that specifically supports their initiative. You should be spending at a minimum 3-5 hours a week dedicated to your cause. This must be documented and turned in to receive your scholarship at the end of your year. (Instagram and Facebook is acceptable)

13. Other Engagements:

Miss Iron County will engage in county events, store openings when scheduled, town/city celebrations, parades and all other events as scheduled by the MIC organization. These may include Cedar City Birthday, Parowan Birthday, Festival of Trees, etc. You also need to take it upon yourself to be involved in these activities, you should not have to be told to attend. The Miss Iron County Organization will help in forwarding events to you so that you may schedule appropriately with school and work.

The County Commissioners have made it a point that they want Miss Iron County involved and out in the public as much as possible. Because they are the scholarship donors we need to make sure this happens.

PLEASE NOTE - ONLY ONE ASSIGNED EVENT MAY BE MISSED DURING YOUR YEAR.

14. Scholarship

Any items listed in the Miss Iron County Scholarship Organization contract and that are not achieved throughout the year will result in a $100 deduction per offense towards their Scholarship. The beginning amount of your scholarship is $2000.00

IMPORTANT: If you decide at any time to retire as Miss Iron County, you acknowledge that you will give up any and all scholarships associated with the title. All awards, prizes, crown and sash must be returned in excellent condition. All rights and titles of MIC/MICT will also be given up. Your title will then be given to the 1st attendant. If the 1st attendant is unable to step into the role of MIC then the award will then be given to the 2nd attendant.
